

Richard Petcher

Richard L. Petcher is a Southern Agronomist with a Cover Crop Consulting and Seed Business in Fruitdale, AL. Lived in Africa, Alaska and Alabama. Farmed in Alaska and then received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in Agronomy & Soils from Auburn University. Twenty two years served as County Extension Agent and Regional Agronomist for Auburn University. Presently specializing in Cover Crops that dynamically improve your soil and provide highly nutritious forage for livestock and wildlife.

Richard Petcher is a Southern Agronomist with a Cover Crop Consulting and Seed Business in Fruitdale, AL. Presently specializing in Cover Crops that dynamically improve your soil and provide highly nutritious forage for livestock and wildlife.