The membership of the SPGCA has a keen interest in incentivizing students to further their education. To help some worthy student achieve his/her academic and career goals, the Board of Directors of SPGCA has acted to offer a scholarship in the amount of $1,500 annually as our budget permits. Following are the criteria for eligibility.

Scholarship Eligibility:

1. Students that are Junior members of SPGCA in good standing, have completed their senior year of high school (by the time the field day is held), and are committed to any college or university (including community college for the first two years) in the United States are eligible for the scholarship.
2. Attach a high quality photo of applicant for media purposes.
3. Incomplete applications will not be accepted and we advise a family member, teacher or advisor to review the application before submission.

SPECIAL NOTE: Each year's scholarship award presentation will be made at the SPGCA Annual Field Day, therefore, it is imperative students do not miss the deadline on submitting their application.
